Exhibiting at Slide - important - please read carefully

Slide is sold as a space only show. You are welcome to exhibit in a simple format, using clothing rails or free standing display units, rather than building walls to create an enclosure for your products, but bear in mind that, without walls, there may be nothing to separate you from your neighbours. Power/electrics can be ordered, as can lighting if required. Note that if you do not have walls, lighting may need a support structure if not freestanding. Shell scheme options are available if required (see below).

•The central area of the show, shaded green on the plan, is reserved for stands with no fixed/solid walls higher than 1.5 metres (grid wall or product itself that protrudes above 1.5 metres is fine up to 2 metres so long as it does not create a visual block. To keep an open feel to this central area, please respect the low level ethos). You can book low shell scheme (1.5m walls) or space only in this area. Note that priority adjacent to the cafe will be given to new brands, while space permits.

•The area shaded white on the plan has a max height of 3 metres for walls. Again, you can book either space only or shell scheme. Permission is required for walls higher than 3 metres.

Exhibitors may not sub-lease or divide stands without permission from the Organisers. All sub-leases shall be bound by these rules and regulations and subleases shall be equally responsible for their conduct. The stand must be staffed and all exhibits must remain on display during the hours the Exhibition is open to visitors. Note: The above Rules and Regulations are extracted from section 10 of the Exhibitor Handbook, and are available on request from the organisers offices, as are regulations for Stand Design, Construction and Fitting.
